

Standards and Rules

All work must be original in concept and execution. No work may be exhibited which has been made with commercial kits, molds, patterns, plans, stencils or prefabricated forms. No more than 25% of the work may be offset or digitally reproduced and each piece must be clearly labeled "Reproduction of the Original". Two dimensional work must be matted.

Artists will be screened by the evaluation committee during the fair. All work exhibited is expected to be equivalent to that depicted in the juried material. Artists who do not comply will be required to remove their work without a refund.

Sales

All work must be clearly priced. No item may be priced over $300. Framed work does not have to include the frame in sale. Artists are responsible for collecting and reporting Wisconsin sales tax.

Display and Set-Up

Each exhibitor is allowed one 12' front and 10' depth space. Each artist sharing a space is required to pay the full registration fee unless both are involved in producing the artwork. Artists bring their own display materials. Each artist is expected to stay until 4 pm. No pets are allowed with artists unless required by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Artists are responsible for loss, damage or theft.

Tax-Deductible Donations for Silent Auction

The Racine Art Guild is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping artists. The silent auction at the Starving Artists Fair provides scholarships to art students in area colleges. Please consider donating an item to this fund raiser. We would greatly appreciate a donation that represents the quality of your work.

Jurying Policy

- All participants will be juried in 2012 and every third year in the future. There is no jury fee.
- Send 3 images of each medium of your current work.
- Submit images digitally (.jpg or .pdf) to RAGuildSAF@gmail.com or mail CD (.jpg or .pdf); 4x6 print photos or slides. Digital images are preferred but not required.

Please circle the one that applies.
