Call Paula Donovitz, 884-4825, to work on this pilot program or on the committee.

Starving Artist Fair needs YOU!

The Starving Artist Fair will take place on August 1 on the Campus of Gateway Technical College at 10th and Main St. Amanda Lawrence and her able committee have been working hard to make this a great fair.

Currently we have 100 artist participating. There is room for 20-30 more booths. Art Guild members get a discount on the cost of a booth. There is still time to sign up. Registration information is on the website so consider doing this.

The committee asked for volunteers at the last meeting and will do so again at the June dinner. There are many volunteer opportunities (registration, demonstration, silent auction, set up, take down, quality review and much more) so consider spending a shift working at the fair.

The member's boutique is also asking members to participate. Call Kate Proeber, 994-8827. Any member can display and sell up to 15 pieces. The artist retains all of the purchase price. This is an opportunity for artists who do not have enough art to have their own individual booth.

Yard signs will be our traditional black and yellow signs and be available at the June dinner. We ask each me take some and set them up at busy locations after the fourth of July.

If your name is here we request you to return your completed canvas on June 10 to Wustum, 6 pm, June dinner. Everyone is welcome to attend the potluck at 6 pm at Wustum. You can also just drop off your work if you do not wish to stay.

We still need volunteers to be with the exhibit and sell the individual paintings for $20 each on the three Saturday mornings in August at the Farmer's Market. Sign up at the June Dinner or call Janet Mrazek, 498-9274.

Volunteers are also needed at the Starving Artist Fair.

The ARTISTS RECEPTION will be AUGUST 6 at Avenue Gallery and Frame during First Friday 7 pm-8 pm. We hope to have posters for sale at the reception and an opportunity for artists to autograph the posters!

Our partner, Racine County Food Bank board and director will be invited to the event.

Brad Harring of Avenue Gallery and Frame has graciously agreed to exhibit Art2 during the month of August when it is not at the Farmer's Market. Watch for it in the window at 402 Main Street. Voting will then take place all month for the First, Second and Third place Peoples Choice Awards.
