November 2011

November Program

Thursday, November 10, 2011

6:30 p.m., Wustum Museum

Impressionism: Masterworks on Paper

Barbara Brown Lee, chief educator of the Milwaukee Art Museum, will discuss Impressionism: Masterworks on Paper, a collection which is currently showing at the museum and will be there until January 8, 2012. It is the first exhibition devoted exclusively to the significance of drawing to the Impressionist and Post-Impressionist avant-garde movements – and to the development of modern art.

Refreshments: An assortment of homemade pies will be available before the program.

Art Blizzard Christmas Party

DATE: Thursday, December 8 - 6:30 at Wustum

Enjoy luscious holiday appetizers, sweets, and drinks held in a blizzard of art works showcased from these RAG programs: "Japanese Stab Books," "Portrait of Hands," "Keep Your Clothes On," "Ten Minute Date with Art," "A day Outside at the Antique Shop with Jean Thielen," and "The Bill Reid Workshop."

Even if you don't have something from a program or workshop, we'd love to show a piece you've done in the past year. Often we aren't familiar with fellow members and are much less familiar with the art they do, so let's get to know one another through our art. Please bring your art when you come to the meeting. Call or email to reserve a spot for your piece:

General Membership Meeting Minutes - October 13, 2011

Nancy Neider called the meeting to order at 6:40 pm at the Racine Art Museum.

The minutes were approved. The treasurer's report was presented and accepted.

Membership: Forms are available for 2012. Please pay by Dec 1 if possible.

Board Positions: Open for 2012: Secretary, Treasurer, programs and membership. Please contact Nancy Neider, 835-1620.

Hospitality: Thanks you for the wonderful cakes tonight. We will have pies in November at Wustum. Please remember to bring your pie if you signed up.

Workshops/Trips: Pam Kazarian reported that for the Sofa Show bus trip to Chicago we have 47 seats to fill and 7 have signed up. Jo Nissen spoke about how enjoyable the show is and encouraged everyone to attend. The cost is $35 for members and $40 for non-members. It will be Saturday, November 5. Call Pam for information, 637-7110.

SAF: We need more people on the committee. The fair will be run by a committee this year. Amanda will make a calendar/schedule. Call Nancy if you can participate, 835-1620.

ART2: We presented checks to the second and third place winners at tonight's meeting, Tanja Martinez and Bonita Carbajal. Congratulations! There are openings on the committee for Art2 in 2012. Please call Pam Kazarian, 637-7110 or Nancy Neider, 835-1620.

Newsletter: Please send any information for the monthly newsletter to Jim Wright (jimphotoguy@sbcglobal.net).

Website; Tammy is working on SAF page from the RAG site to beef up the key words so we can attract more artists for the SAF next year.

Old Business: none

New Business: Sharon suggested an art supply swap at the December meeting. Everyone thought that was a good idea!

Suellyn introduced the speaker, Patricia Briggs, curator from UW-Parkside, for the presentation on conceptual art.

Respectfully submitted,
Janet Mrazek
Secretary

The Racine Art Guild Needs You!

If you would like to become involved in the Racine Art Guild there are many things to do. The following board positions, however, urgently need to be filled:

Treasurer: This could be a two person position – one person doing the check book, another recording memberships and other related duties.

Secretary: Two people could do this job, possibly alternating meetings.

Program Chairman: Two heads are better than one when thinking of programs.

Please call Carolyn Chaplin or Nancy Neider if you are interested. (638-9873 – 835-1620)
